Homecoming Means . . .

Wilson has an abundance of school spirit, and the students showed it during Homecoming week.
Monday we reverted back to our Childhood Days.
Tuesday we dressed in a New Wave of style.
Wednesday brought Nostalgia.
Thursday faced an exotic Masquerade.
Friday we flaunted it in Green and White.

Wilson

The Woodrow Wilson High School football team struggled through another tough season with a 2-8 record. Their lack of size and experience was in evidence throughout, but they still fought gallantly in each game. The Tigers displayed their true character by never giving up, and in the process, they surprised many people who had written them off.

The Tigers started the season by losing four straight games to non-league opponents. But they never stopped working, knocking off league rivals Dunbar, whom they hadn't beaten in fourteen years, and Cardozo consecutively. The Tigers then lost their last four games, including a bitterly fought 6-0 loss to Coolidge on Homecoming.

There were a few Tigers who were outstanding. Jerome Kennedy set an Interhigh passing record; Charles Bryant, playing with a broken wrist, led the Tiger defense and kept opponents short of the goal line. Ray Brown's outstanding defensive play earned him all-interhigh honors. Finally, Ronald Campbell played heroically on both offense and defense and seemed to never tire. There is a strong nucleus of players coming back next season, and with new talent arriving, the Tigers should be strong once again.

Vonda Smoot has plenty to be happy about.

nake those pompoms.

That's right; we're going to win!

t's go!

Come on, you can do it.

Mellow fans.

Wilson crowds were spirited.

Although attendance was a problem, most representatives (below) worked hard at improving the school, bettering relations, and organizaing school activities.

Committee Chairpeople made extra efforts to improve school communications and unity. (Top, from left) Junior Abby Rich put together a peer counseling service. As chairperson of the School Improvement Committee, Connie Gray headed such projects as the rose garden clean-up and library-shelf organization. Nicki Belfiore took responsibility for organizing elections. Jenny Smith, as Service Committee Chair, sponsored the Thanksgiving Food Drive, a cookie contest, and a reception for teachers. The annual Wilson Variety Show was a great success under the hands of Lucinda Rybacki and Eric Dellums (bottom row). Responding to numerous student complaints, Karen Rothschild made the Grievance Committee active. Ani Hyslop publicized her weekly Student News.

When Jacob Frumkin was elected Secretary, he left his position as chairman of the Public Relations Committee; Jeff Cowan and Pamela Williams (not pictured) were appointed to take his place. Pam worked with the community and conducted a survey with the local merchants in order to improve Wilson's image, and Jeff wrote news releases for the local press and media in order to promote Wilson's achievements and activities.

The Art Club has contributed in many of Wilson's activities. One of their greatest contributions was this tissue paper tiger which was created for homecoming.

Le Cercle Francais

Le Cercle Francais, the French Club, made up of Wilson's francophiles under the supervision of Madame Cunningham, explore the French culture. They have French meals, perform scenes from the works of Moliere and Sarte, see French films, and visit the Rodin exhibit.

Everyone will remember le soiree chez Madame when the food was abundant, the wine flowed, and the music resounded throughout the room. Souvenez-vous: "Vive la France" et "Tout le monde est bien venu."

Hey That's me

To Reggie (Foots) Glenn
it has been a very crazy and cool year
like the time we got banned from Armands,
And all the crazy
times in Freeman class, stay cool and keep playing tennis and taking good flicks.

The Wilson basketball team finished the season with a disappointing 4-14 record. However, their record does not give proper credit to the team's accomplishments. They fought to the end in every game and only lost to two highly ranked teams (Blair and Mackin) by a total of eight points.

Inexperience hurt the Tigers. With only three seniors on the team and only one in the starting line-up, the Tigers were the youngest team in the Interhigh League. Junior forward Joseph Burney averaged 18.2 points a game and a 34 point/12 rebound game against Bell. Joining Burney in the front court were Senior center Bruce McCoy and Junior forward Benny Boykin. Juniors Keith Lomax and Juan Johnson started for the Tigers in the backcourt. Senior Justin McFadden led a strong Wilson bench. The team was young but managed to put a scare into many teams. Next year the Tigers will be a team to roar about.

This year's Committee of Foreign Affairs, representing Uganda and Poland, participated in Model United Nations at Georgetown University and the University of Virginia. With the guidance of sponsor Sally Chou, the members learned a great deal about the United Nations.

The National Honor Society is composed of students who have earned either a 3.6 grade point average in their junior year or a 3.3 in their senior year and have been recommended by their teachers. The society stresses scholarship, leadership, service, and tries to encourage these qualities among their peers.

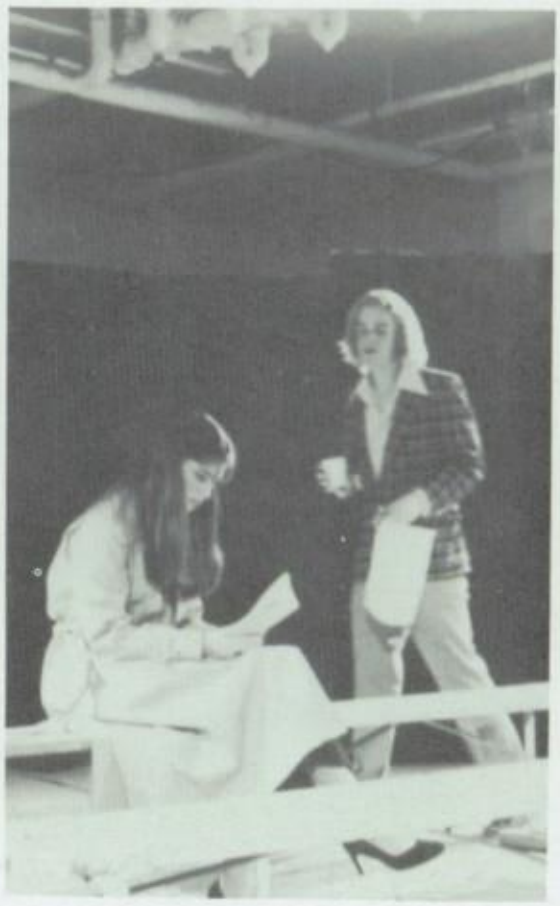
The Wilson Players is a student-run drama group open not only to Wilson, but also to the community. The troupe generally puts on three or four performances annually. The first production of this year was a series of one-act plays: "The Bald Soprano" by Ionesco, "Fairy Boat" by Melfi, and "Death" by Woody Allen.

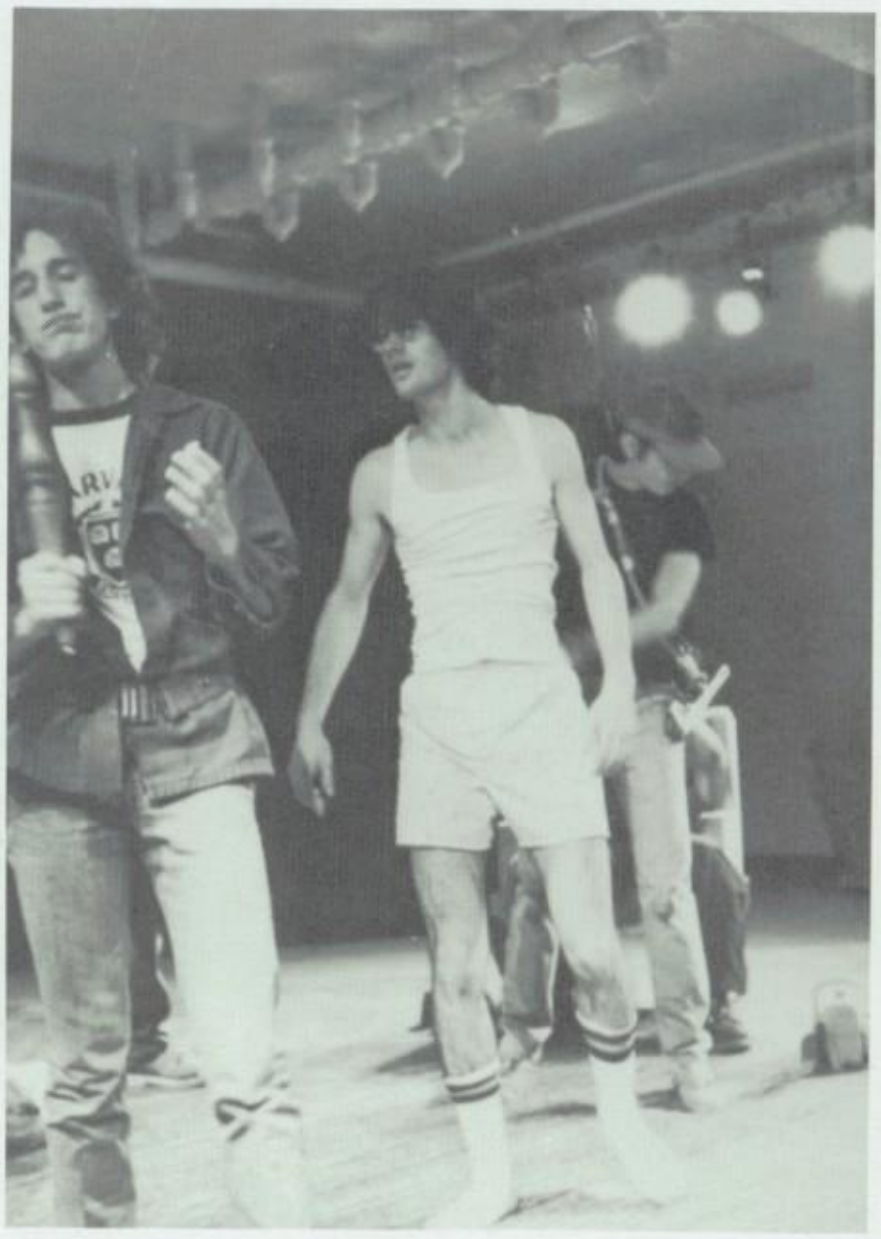
In "Death" David Kiron and Toby Baker discuss a psychotic killer on the loose.

Erik Dellums, a fireman, and Ian Mckaye tease and congratulate one another in "The Bald Soprano."



Cheramie Ellis pretends "Mr. Right" isn't approaching her aboard the "Fairy Boat."

Tina Angelos, a third-year Player, did much of the set and organizational work.



"Death:" Tom Pearl and David "I don't want to die" Kiron.

Fourth row: Illuminada Relacion, Donna Jeffries, Dawn Hackley, Vonda Smoot, Brenda Corpening. Not pictured: Mari Conway, Beth Eastman, Petra Volkman.

The Girls Service Club tries to help other organizations within Wilson and the community. They assisted the student government with decorating the school for various holidays, the variety show, and Gala Night. They gave Christmas baskets to needy families within Wilson, raised money for the Zacheus House Medical Clinic and Soup Kitchen, gave a party for the residents of a nursing home, held a spring carwash and numerous bake sales.

Beth Eastman, always willing to help.

I, Andy Goldman, will to Catherine Teare a Montgomery doughnuts t-shirt and a copy of the UNA handbook Everything You Ever Wanted To Know about The United Nations But Were Afraid To Ask.
I, Karen Harlee, will my ability to "cool out" to Kim Baker.
I, Michelle Harris, will my friendship to Robin Anderson.
I, Darryl Jones, will from the top of my heart to the bottom of my burner all of my happiness to Sharon Turner.
I, Toaja Lauwt, will my sewing ability and creativity to all future sewers of Woodrow Wilson.
I, Neil Montgomery, will my F's and D's to all future smart students.
I, Millie Morales, will to Ruby Nunez success in her senior year.
I, Hudson Primus, will my dressing ability and coolness to William Burke.
I, Warren Reid, will to Connie Parks all my Barbara Streisand records.
I, Charles "Bucky" Rones, will to the twins "A good morning, how are you?"
I, Karen Rothschild, will sweet harmonies to the choirs and patience to future Grievance Committee Chairpersons.
We, Holly Russell and Ani Hyslop, will our clarinet positions and ability (or non-ability) to Chris Cordom.
I, Rose Scott, leave my nice smile to my Honey R. Hipp and the girls of '82.
The Senior Class of 1982, being of sound mind and body, wills its senior slump to the class of 1983.
I, Jackie Smith, will my smile to Mr. Washington.
I, Asmot Snave, will to Zelide my slumpless senior year.
I, Vonda Smoot, will to Mrs. Garcia another 5th period history class like the one of 1981 and my purple prose award.
I, Andre Stanback, will success to the '83 outdoor track team.
I, Katrina Wade, will my self-control to Naoza Collins.
We, the Wogaman family, will green and white paint to the roof of the Wilson auditorium.
I, Patrick T. Wilkerson, will my voice to the next black male singer of the class of '83.
I, "PAM WMS," will to any senior the right to inscribe my logo on every desk.
I, Patricia Young, will to Pamela Williams my nice smile.
I, Dana Mozie will to all my classmates the desire to take themselves higher.

The Beacon

The Beacon, the offical newspaper of Wilson, is produced by the Journalism II class. After learning that the paper's sponsor, Marion Hines, was taking a year off, the staff welcomed Genise Stancil as the new sponsor.

The staff made a number of changes in The Beacon, including changing publication from bi-monthly to monthly, adding a feature section, and starting a point-counter-point column on important national issues affecting Wilson students.

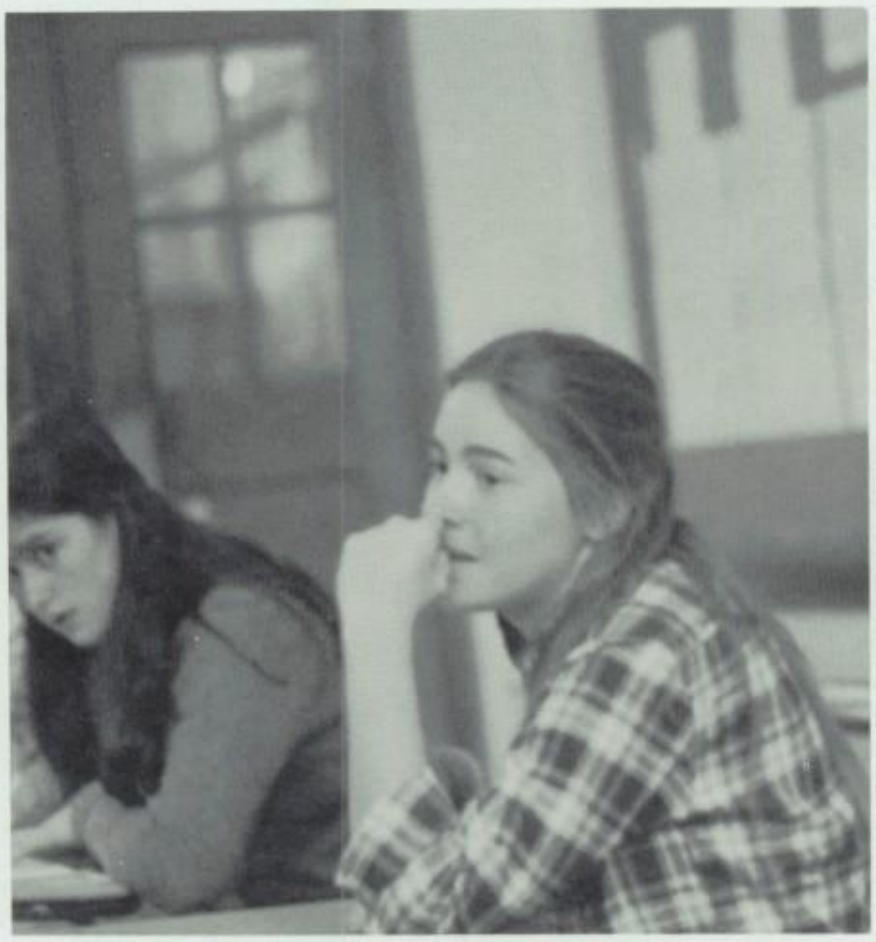
Lines

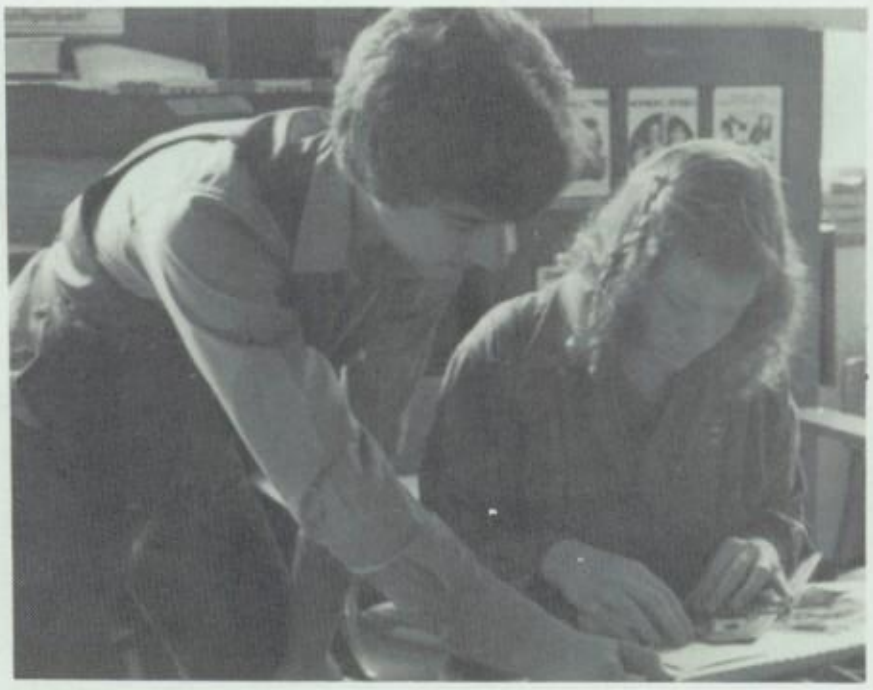
First row: R. Mays, C. Caton, E. Cowan, C. Ellis, J. Wogaman. Second row: H. Flack, K. Fothergill, L. Jacobs, P. Levin, C. Gray, S. Gall. Third row: E. Dellums, J. Barkan, A. Fothergill, L. Moskowitz, S. Briley, G. Egan, C. Heden, M. Mendelsohn, C. Teare, D. Kiron, J. Stechschulte. Fourth row: J. Lecar, M. M. Fleisig, N. Belfiore, T. Baker.

This year, Lines, the literary magazine, did something new by publishing both a spring and a late winter issue. Sponsor Joseph Stechschulte facilitated this, helping editors Joyce Heller, Robin Loiterstein, and Kate Fothergill to past together details.

Yearbook

First row: Kate Fothergill, Vonda Smoot, Tanya Taylor. Second row: Pam Levin, Catherine Teare, Caren Clift, Amy Peer, Nicki Belfiore, Gloria Hammond, Jeffrey Cowan.





The Yearbook staff would like to apologize to any groups or individuals we may have left out.

Student Government

This year's Student Government Variety Show was a big success. The show, featuring a tremendous amount of student talent, was very well attended and a financial success. With the supervision of sponsors Sally Chou and Marshall Greene, Erik Dellums and Lucinda Rybacki organized and directed a superb production. This year's theme, "Am I Dreaming," revolved around a mock telethon to fight "tackiness." Special recognition goes to Michelle Mitchell, Neil Chase, Sebastian Wright, and Kevin Broome, all of who were key components in behind the scenes work.

Erik "Larry Lewis" Dellums emceed the show.

Pam Williams helped Larry run the telethon as Mabel Tash.

Satiny recaptured the spirit of the 50's.

Variety Show

Charlie Stanchik revived the memory of Elvis Presley.

The Brass Connection jazzed away.

The Unpure Prairie League entertained with bluegrass.

Body Works demonstrated the finest "Pop" in town.

Melanie Washington sang accompanied by Monica Hannapel.

David Argentieri brought his frisbee to life.

Carleton Parker moved the crowd with "The Greatest Love of All."

Neil Chase ran the lights backstage.

Antoinette Mitchell and Brian Coleman showed how to stop roaches.

Sound Director Kevin Broome checks his equipment.

Robin Scott danced "The Tornado."

Hey Reggie-
Thankyou for helping me put up with Jeff!! He nearly drove us crazy but at least we got it done! Next year it will be great!! Have a wild summer, I hope I'll see you. Much love, Catherine Teare

Reggie:
For the past several months that I have known you, you have been a really dear and wonderful friend. I have to admit that you are truly one of the craziest people I know next to Kim. (smile) I know there are times that I really make you sick, and there are times when you really like me as a friend. But always remember that you will always be a very good friend of mine. And I hope the feeling is mutual. I hope next year that we are good friends as we have been these last couple of months, because a friend like you is to good to loose.

Love Always,
Angie (723-2404)

P.S. - I hope you are not to upset about us just being friends. And I hope you understand someday.
